Teacher Resources: Curriculum

| Title   | Source Info                         | Target age group and description                |
|---|-------------------------------------|---|
| Windows into the Past: Crow Canyon  | Kendall-Hunt                        | Grades 4-8. Focuses on the archaeological       |
| Archaeological Center's Guide for Teachers                                  | ISBN 0-7872-6748-1                  | process, and ancestral Pueblo culture.          |
| (2000).   | 144 pp.                             |   |
|   | $39.99                             |   |
| Intrigue of the Past: A Teacher's Activity                                  | US Dept. of the Interior, Bureau of | 28 stand-alone lessons covering fundamental     |
| Guide for 4th-7th Grades. S. Smith, J. Moe, K. | Land Management.                    | reasoning, archaeological process, and issues   |
| Letts, D. Paterson. (1993, 1996)  |                                     | in archaeology.                                 |
| Intrigue of the Past: Discovering Archaeology                               | US Dept. of the Interior, Bureau of | Grades 4-8. Background information on time      |
| in New Mexico. Catherine Cameron, Steve                                     | Land Management.                    | periods from Paleo-Indian to the Spanish        |
| Lekson.   |                                     | Entradas and Athabaskan immigrations. A         |
|   |                                     | handful of stand-alone lessons in the           |
|   |                                     | Appendix. Fairly comprehensive list of          |
|   |                                     | references and resources (*mostly directed at   |
|   |                                     | adults).  |
| Anasazi Heritage Center   | www.blm.gov/co/st/en/ahc.html       | Ancestral Puebloan cultures of the Four         |
|   |                                     | Corners area. See Who Were the Anasazi?, Sites, |
|   |                                     | Artifact Gallery. Under Education Resources,    |
|   |                                     | the Escalante Pueblo Curriculum (178 pp!) has   |
|   |                                     | lesson plans for activities related to          |
|   |                                     | archaeological thinking, as well as Four        |
|   |                                     | Corners prehistory content.                     |
| National Park Service: Teaching With  | www.nps.gov/nr/twhp                 | Of the 150+ lesson plans in TWHP, a few focus   |
| Historic Places   |                                     | on archaeological sites. See: Gran Quivira,     |
|   |                                     | Awatovi, and Tonto National Monument.           |
|   |                                     | Combines history, social studies, geography     |
|   |                                     | for middle and high school students, and uses   |
|   |                                     | maps, images.                                   |

Teacher Resources: Background to New Mexico Prehistory

| Title  | Source Info                        | Target age group and description                        |
|--|------------------------------------|---|
| Archaeology of the Southwest. By Linda S.      | Left Coast Press                   | Often used as an undergrad text. Concise,               |
| Cordell and Maxine E. McBrinn. 3 rd | ISBN 978-0933452435                | clear, and comprehensive.                               |
| edition, 2012                                  |                                    | _   |
| Great Excavations: Tales of Early              | School of Advanced Research Press, | Role of archaeologists of the late 19 th and |
| Southwestern Archaeology 1888-1939. By         | Santa Fe NM                        | early 20 th c in unearthing the Southwest's  |
| Melinda Elliott.                               | ISBN 978-0933452435                | prehistoric past.                                       |
| 1995   | 270 pp                             |   |
|  | $19.95                            |   |